Red 2 (3-6 years old)

Beginner players are introduced to tennis by playing on a 36' long and 18' wide court with a portable net. Focus will be on forehand and backhand grips and technique, and the overhead serve.

Red 1 (5-8 years old)

For intermediate players. Focus will be on maintaining balance and technique while rallying, learning topspin groundstrokes, slice serves, and match strategy.

Players showing mastery in Red 1 will be recommended for Junior Team Tennis and/or tournaments and may progress to Orange 1 or Tournament Clinics.

Orange 2 (6-10 years old)

Beginner players are introduced to tennis by playing on a 60' long and 21' wide court. Focus will be on forehand and backhand grips and technique, and serving.

Orange 1 (8-11 years old)

For intermediate players. Focus will be on maintaining balance and technique while rallying, learning topspin groundstrokes, slice serves, and match strategy.

Players showing mastery in Orange 1 will be recommended for Junior Team Tennis and/or tournaments and may progress to Tournament Clinics.

Please note that age groups above are used as guidance. Classes are usually split up by skill level rather than by age.
