BILLING PROCEDURE:

1. The member submitting the application will be considered the Court Captain unless otherwise indicated.
2. The cost of a Season Court Time is calculated by multiplying the prevailing hourly Season Court Rate based on membership status by the number of weeks in the season for the day of the reservation (21 in most cases). The total cost may be divided by the regular players. Reservations will be billed when the court is booked and confirmed.
3. RRC will split the total cost of a seasonal court by the total number of regular players, a season court must list all regular players in their group. Please use two forms if needed.
4. A reservation for a Season Court Time made after the start of the Season will be prorated to the appropriate number of weeks. Based on availability.
5. Although Season Court Time cannot be cancelled, a court may be placed for resale. If the club is notified at least two days in advance of the requested resale date of the Season Court reservation, the club will make every attempt to resale the court if the court is sold the appropriate credits will be placed on the court captain's account.
